In the Interim

Three months from now you should be meeting with the candidate to be your next settled minister (April 30 thru May 7). At that same time, your Board should have endorsed an operating budget for Fiscal Year 2018 (1 July 2017 thru 30 June 2018) that you will be asked to approve at the annual meeting. That budget will be a value laden document that expresses your commitments and indicates what you want to accomplish with your new minister. February will determine what that document looks like in May.

During the annual pledge drive in February, every member and supporting friend will be asked to renew their financial support of the institution for the coming year by making a pledge for FY 2018. By telling us what your planned contributions to UUCM are for the coming year, you allow us to create an operating budget based on projected income over a 12 month period. It is important for everyone in the community to make a pledge, whatever the amount, so that we can plan accurately for the coming year.

I hope that you will make the most generous pledge possible, because your gifts to the institution will ensure that my colleague steps into leadership of congregation that is fully committed to its values and equipped to succeed. I want nothing more than to look back in five years and see UUCM thriving as an institution, serving its members and community, and leading our faith into a bright future.

Yours in faith,

Rev. Dr. Justin S. Osterman, Interim Senior Minister

Shared Ministry

Desire is the perfect theme for February and Valentine's Day. Desire in romance novels get people into all kinds of trouble but there is a desire that brings us into closer relationship with God or the holy. Father James Martin talks about how our desire brings us into relationship with our life partners. There is a tugging at our hearts and minds that calls us into our life's work and purpose. Frederick Buechner describes that calling as "the place where your deep gladness and the world's deep hunter meet."

The Women's March on Washington was just such a meeting point. Desire draws us out of our small individual circle into something larger. The desire for justice, equity and compassion got millions of people around the world out into the streets on January 21.

The hearts of our UUCM members are longing for a new minister and staff to guide us into the 21st Century; leaders who will help us connect with a deeper source, with each other and the world's deep hunger. That desire is going to take us to worlds we've only begun to explore.

The trouble with desire is that it keeps calling us. This month, may desire fill your heart and may you be full.

Rev. Judith Ann Tomlinson, Associate Minister

Religious Education: Looking Forward

Welcome back to our regular schedule! It was nice to have a break but I am excited to continue with all the fun things we have planned for rest of this year! The best way to stay up to date is to join our Facebook group.

www.facebook.com/groups/1078191248877955/

We had a very successful Undoing Racism Day. In Children's Chapel we created a quilt showing how we will show our activism in Undoing Racism. A picture of our quilt is on our Facebook page and we will display it during coffee hour for the duration of this month.

We are still Thinking Orange so keep an eye out for our weekly questions. I would love for you to share your responses on the Facebook page (or with me on Sunday) and hear about what kind of dynamic family experiences you like.

On Saturday February 25th in the Alliance Room, second through fifth grade families will have a special community building event (CBE). Lunch will be provided and all siblings are invited.

For Your Calendars

2/2 (Thurs) Family Meet-Up at the Montclair Art Museum

2/7 (Tues) RE Committee Meeting, 7:30 pm

2/12 Children's Chapel: Love

2/25 (Sat) Second-Fifth Grade CBE

See you Sunday,

News from the Board

We are about to start our generosity campaign at UUCM. Instead of reflexively deciding our pledges based on last year, let's each of us reflect on the various ways this institution feeds us - each and every week, month and year. And still beyond these ways that UUCM gives back, its overarching gift is the gift of community. It is our community that enabled our ancestors to organize during the Civil Rights Movement; that provides thousands of meals to our homeless neighbors each year; that struggled to win marriage equality in NJ; that declares "Black Lives Matter" and mobilizes around structural racism. And most recently, it is our community that organized for the Women's March and will fight against the coming attack on our rights.

Our community does not exist apart from its congregational home, a building that was erected in the early 20th Century. If our community is to thrive in the coming years, we must invest in our home for the 21st Century and beyond! Think about it: shall we welcome a new minister this spring with a budget that barely covers our bills? Or shall we welcome a new minister with a budget that announces, loud and proud, that we are together equipping our new leader with the resources to respond to the unique challenge and opportunity presented by this new season of struggle for justice in America? Let's pledge like our lives depend on it. In many ways they actually do.

Ministerial Search Committee

It is a time of discernment for the MSC! In early January we reviewed information from 23 ministers who showed an interest in our congregation. We narrowed them down to 4 who will spend time with us during pre-candidating weekends in February and March. By April, we should have a candidate to introduce to you during Candidating Week (April 29 - May 7).

We heard from many amazing ministers who have different backgrounds and strengths. During the pre-candidating weekends, we will be learning much more about the interested ministers, their theology, personal histories, likes and dislikes, and their hopes and dreams.

We have already used some of the questions you suggested in the Searchlight meetings, and plan to use more during the longer interviews. These include:

- What are you passionate about in ministry?
- What worship service are you most proud of and why? What worship service failed and what did you learn from it?
- Why us? Why now?

Thank you for your support! We are keeping all of you in mind as we go through this process, remembering that it's your expectations we are trying to meet.

We are your Ministerial Search Committee:

Peter Arian, John Carlton, Nancy Felix, Erin Krupa, Lawrence Ramsey, Chelsea Vaughn Showalter and Connie Thames - search@uumontclair.org

Ministerial Transition Team

There has been so much discussion about the presidential Inauguration and several commentators have referred to that ceremony as a celebration of the peaceful transfer of power. In other words, there is an idea of celebrating smooth transition and all the work that happens "behind the scenes" to make sure it all goes as planned.

And this gives us the opportunity once again to remind the congregation that the Ministerial Transition Team is still working on your behalf. We meet monthly to assess how the interim period is progressing. We have held discussions and workshops and are now planning to send a survey to lapsed members in the hope that we can learn more about supporting and retaining membership. Watch for additional announcements, and an email containing a link to this survey, which you should receive early this month. Please share that survey with former members you may know.

So, in the spirit of recognizing the power of smooth transition, the MTT is grateful for all the input and support we have received from the congregation. We look forward to your continued questions, feedback and participation through the end of the program year.

We are your Ministerial Transition Team:

David Bessey (kittyqb@aol.com), Nina Cooke-John (ncookejohn@hotmail.com), Sarah Scalet (sarah@scalet.me), Christian Turek (cpaturek@gmail.com) and Laura Wilson (lcwilson45@verizon.net)

How can I get a Member Directory?

We continuously update our member directory for UUCM. If you are a member and need a copy, let us know and we can email you one or send you a hard copy in the mail. Please let us know when any revisions are made to your address, phone number, and/or email address so we can have the most current information in our system.

Can I get some photocopies made?

We will be more than happy to make copies for your UUCM-related committee, group or event. Since the staff is most familiar with our machines, we ask that you submit all requests to the office during regular office hours and we will be happy to assist you.

Who do I talk to about my Annual Pledge?

How do I make a monetary donation to UUCM?

Checks may be made out to UUCM. Please use the memo line to indicate to us your intentions (i.e., Annual Pledge, Plate Collection, Seasons of Life Fund, Sharing Our Riches, MESH). You can also make donations via electronic funds transfer (EFT). Contact Emilia Sadonis for info.

Can I make other kinds of donations to UUCM?

We do not accept donations of clothing, books or household items. We suggest donating used clothing to either the Salvation Army or the Red Cross. Your local library might also be happy to accept your old books. If you wish to donate items for our MESH Café Ministry, please email randilynnhawkins@gmail.com.

How do I submit a check request?

All check requests must come from the head of your committee or group and be received a week in advance of need. Submit your receipts to your committee leader and have them contact the Administrator to electronically fill out the request.

How do I get an announcement into the order of service, Gazette or weekly email blast?

For Sunday announcements, all requests need to be sent to our office by Wednesday. We also send out our weekly email blast on Wednesday. All announcements from the previous Sunday are included in the blast. UUCM-related events take precedence over outside events but we do our best to accommodate all requests. Announcements must be kept short. Gazette articles must be no longer than 200 words. Send to our Office Mgr. Jaclyn Puleo (officemgr@uumontclair.org).

How can I provide Sunday flowers for the Chancel?

You can provide the Sunday Chancel flowers to honor a memory or a person. The price is reasonable and your dedication will be acknowledged in the Order of Service. Contact Lori Alexander at yngraph@gmail.com or (973) 338-1226 for more info.

What are child dedications?

Child dedications are our ritual way of welcoming infants and children into the congregation. They are similar to Baptisms, Christenings or Naming Ceremonies in other faith traditions. For members, a small child is dedicated as part of our Sunday morning worship services. We also perform Child Dedications in people's homes.

Among Ourselves

Snow Cancellation Possibilities

It is impossible to predict all of the winter weather conditions that might warrant the closing of UUCM. This is especially true for services on Sunday morning when no one would want us to be closed. In an effort to provide an approach that might enable members and friends to anticipate what to expect, the following guidelines are being offered:

- 1) In the event of a major snow storm on a Saturday night/Sunday morning:
 - The office voicemail (973-744-6276, ext. 17), our website (www.uumontclair.org) and Facebook page will all be updated as soon as possible;
 - If a snowfall of over 5" has occurred on Saturday night/Sunday morning, there will be one service only at 11:00 AM; Coffee Hour will be held after the service.
 - If a snowfall of over 10" has occurred on Saturday night/Sunday morning, there will be no services held on that Sunday.
- 2) Don't take any unnecessary chances. If you feel that there is significant reason to question your safety while traveling on the streets, stay home.
- 3) If an ice storm is in progress, stay home.
- 4) For an evening or Saturday meeting or event, if 5" or more fall, the event will be cancelled. You can also call the office voice-mail at (973) 744-6276, ext. 17, or check the website for info.

Greeters Wanted!

Here's a great way to get to know the friendly faces walking through the door Sunday mornings: be a Greeter! David Hanley, chief overseer of the Narthex, has a sign-up sheet and instructions on performing this essential role needed Sunday mornings.

UUCM Talk and Tour Schedule

Have you ever been curious to learn a bit more about our beautiful Sanctuary and buildings? Our UUCM Tour will be February 5th. We will also be leading UU 101 for any newcomers interested in getting a brief overview of our UU history, beliefs and values February 19th. Since Rev. Tomlinson will be on Sabbatical, UUCM member Dorothy Rogers has graciously stepped in to lead both our Talk and Tour this month. Meet us by the fireplace in the Narthex after each service!

Our CommUUnity Mart

Come visit us every Sunday at Coffee Hour! Purchase your weekly gift cards from ShopRite, Fairway and King's as well as many other items. Do you need a place to display and sell your art? We'd love to welcome you as an "Artist of the Month" at our UU Marketplace table at our Coffee and Connection Hour from 10:00 to 11:00 AM each Sunday. 80% of sales go to the artist and 20% is donated to the U. If you would like more information contact Arlene Dodge at (908)889-5784 or at adodge918@hotmail.com.

Bed & Breakfast Program

In our bed and breakfast program, hosts gain new friends from other places and travelers meet hosts who share many of their interests, concerns, and values, enjoy comfortable quarters at affordable prices and have the opportunity to obtain answers to their questions about the area they are visiting. All proceeds benefit the work of UUCM. If you wish to host or need accommodation, contact Carol McGough at carol-peckldtc@yahoo.com or (973) 680-1603.

Seasons of Life Fund

The Seasons of Life Fund is an outlet for self-expression at the milestone moments of life: the birth of a child, the death of a parent, a dear friend's benchmark birthday. Created with a win-win between you and the congregation in mind, The Seasons of Life Fund accepts donations in any amount to be used toward programs and services that fulfill our mission.

We received an anonymous donation to the Fund in the amount of $25 in memory of Bob New.

Pathway to Membership Classes

Are you new to UU Montclair? Do you want to know more about Unitarian Universalism? Are you interested in what it means to be a member? Led by members of our Membership Committee and our ministers, join us over five consecutive Sundays – February 5th, 12th, 19th, 26th and March 5th from 10:00 to 11:00 AM (between services) in the Rotunda – to learn more about Unitarian Universalism and our congregation. In these five sessions, we share our faith journeys, explore the history of the Unitarian and Universalist traditions, and gain an orientation to this congregation's life by members and leaders who are involved in making it work. Those who choose can become UUCM members at the last session. Sign up at the Religious Education table on Sunday or call the office during the week for information.

Sunday Remembrances

We are saddened by the passing of member Bob New on Tuesday, January 3rd. Bob had been a longtime member of our congregation with his wife, Elsa. We send our loving thoughts to Elsa and to all of Bob's family and friends.

For Member Jill Raleigh's 47 year old brother, Jonathan Raleigh, who died unexpectedly on December 7 in NYC.

For a friend of Mary Moriarty who has been diagnosed with an aggressive and advanced form of cancer.

For Ginny Crooks' friend and accomplished musician, Chris Griffin, who died by his own hand in January because he feared his medical problems made him a burden to his friends.

For Jason Brome's aunt Mavis who passed away on January 12th after a long battle with cancer. Please keep his Uncle Stan and his family in your thoughts and prayers.

From Sarah Scalet in gratitude to Teresa DeSousa for organizing a busload of people to attend the historic Women's March on Washington on January 21st.

For Veronique Ramsey's uncle Theo who passed away in January in Veronique's hometown of Almelo, The Netherlands. He was beloved by Rowan, Lanka and Lawrence as well.

A candle for Arlene Dodge's mom, Muriel Roberts, who has entered hospice with the hope she still feels the love of family that surrounds her.

The Ponticello-Minimier family – Jo, Barb, and Luca – mourn the loss of Jo's father, Joseph Ponticello, who died Thursday, January 12, 2017. He was 94 years old and was an amazing man – kind, compassionate, and generous. He will be missed.

We have introduced a new way of sharing remembrances during Sunday services. Instead of saying your remembrance up on the Chancel, you will find a small table with candles and remembrances book in the Sanctuary on Sundays. Please write any joy or sorrow you have in the book, light a candle, and indicate whether you want your remembrance shared or kept private. Written remembrances will capture important news and equip your community to respond effectively to your joys and sorrows.

Pastoral Care Ministry

The Pastoral Care Committee meets monthly to reach our mission to insure that all members of the congregation are served when they are in need. This month we served several members. Meals we shared and rides to services were provided. There were visits to residents in a local nursing home. The flowers from the chancel were shared. Condolence and get well cards were sent. There were follow-up calls to people served during December.

As our efforts to minister to the congregation continue, we are in need of help providing meals, rides to services and caring contact. We are in the process of setting up online support for volunteers to assist in our ministry. It is our hope to share this with you later in the month. If you are able to assist in any way please contact one of the committee co-chairs listed below. If you are in need of assistance or know of someone who could use a contact from the PCC, please contact Rev. Justin Osterman, Rev. Judy Tomlinson or one of the co-chairs. Thank you for your support.

We look forward to working with you, and remember the wider the outreach we generate, the more we will do to create a web of care that will bind the entire congregation together in this special ministry.

Co-Chairs - Arlene Marin (973-748-9194 /arlenemarin@hotmail.com) and Melissa Mintz (973-744-0889 /whit.mintz@verizon.net).

Coffee and Connections Hour

Coffee and Connections Hour is a great time to meet and catch up with friends and members of the congregation as well as make our visitors feel welcome. Please consider hosting a Coffee Hour by bringing food, setting up snacks for the congregation and cleaning up. There is a sign-up sheet at every coffee hour posted in the kitchen on the wall. You can sign up there or at <http://www.uumontclair.org/worship/coffee-hour/>. If you need any help, including during coffee hour, or would like more information, please contact Connie Thames at temzplace@yahoo.com.

You Can Reduce Your Use

News from our Green Sanctuary Committee

Now that Donald Trump is President and his cabinet is waiting to be confirmed, the signs of a very challenging time for truth, beauty, justice, and compassion and Earth herself are undeniable. The environment seems to be slated for even more and faster destruction at the expense of the "interdependent web of all existence." The time to change ourselves and act is now! Get involved in local, state, and national initiatives (for suggestions you can reach me at silkespr7@gmail.com). Inspired by the empowering experience at the Women's March on Washington on January 21st, I invite you to mark your calendar for Saturday, April 29th (even if this is the first day of candidating week) for the planned People's Climate March in Washington, D.C. For more information go to <http://www.uumistryforearth.org/> or <https://350.org/april-29-2017-lets-march/>. Let's get involved on every level to show our care for the Earth, with whom we are connected for our well-being and our very survival. Let's work together and support each other in this vitally important work!
