THE GAZETTE

Our Newsletter for March 2017
Vol. 20 Issue 7

Our Mission:

We are a liberal religious community seeking transformation in our hearts, our homes, our community, and our world.

“The greatest danger for most of us is not that our aim is too high and we miss it, but that it is too low and we reach it.”

In the Interim

In sermons over the past year, I've shared life lessons learned from SCUBA diving. One thing I've learned is that life is short, precious, and some opportunities only present themselves once; so, say "yes," if at all possible, when special opportunities arise.

Such an opportunity presented itself when I was invited to go SCUBA diving in the Philippines. At first I dismissed the idea, certain that I couldn't be gone for two weeks in March. Then I recognized my ego and misguided sense of self-importance speaking. This religious institution has prospered for over a century and will, I hope, thrive long into the future without me. I reminded myself that UUCM's very capable paid staff works hard to keep the institution running smoothly and you, the committed volunteers, do most of the best things that happen here. "Ministry," to quote Rev. Gordon McKeeman, "is what we all do—together." Once I remembered all of that, and consulted with UUCM's elected leaders and my own professional advisors, I said "yes" to this unique opportunity.

I will be in Dumaguete, and then Puerto Galera, in the Philippines 2-18 March. I promise not to talk about diving in my sermon on Sunday, 19 March, but I will certainly be doing some sermon research underwater and some deep reflection while ashore.

I will not be checking emails or responding to text messages or phone calls while I am away. I trust that with Rev. Judy's support and the guidance of the Board of Trustees you'll do well in my absence.

Yours in faith,

Interim Senior Minister

Shared Ministry

One of his students asked Buddha, "Are you the messiah?"

"No", answered Buddha.

"Then are you a healer?"

"No", Buddha replied.

"Then are you a teacher?" the student persisted.

"No, I am not a teacher."

"Then what are you?" asked the student, exasperated.

"I am awake," Buddha replied.

During my 6 week sabbatical I have had the opportunity to go down Memory Lane. I have been sorting papers and photographs in preparation for presenting my Odyssey (spiritual life story) to my Religious Education and ministerial colleagues in May. I awakened to my personal and professional history; goals, losses, failures, achievements and spiritual awakenings.

All that life has prepared me for the next major chapter of my life and given me the confidence to set off into the unknown. This time with a companion, my husband Rob, and a family that will be happy to have me close. Yet so many things remain open. Though we have picked an area, we do not have an address. While Rob can take his computer and write from any locale, I don't yet know what work I'll be doing.

I pray for the faith to move forward unafraid, to not shut down. I pray to once again hear a calling. I pray for our congregation to awaken to the current religious landscape, to embrace new challenges and new professional leadership.

What are you doing to awaken and stay woke?

Religious Education: Looking Forward

We had an absolutely beautiful month. For Valentine's Day, after reading the book The Journey by Francesca Sanna, we dug into our Unitarian Universalist traditions and made Valentines for the mayor of Montclair, asking to look into his heart to make Montclair a sanctuary city. It was very cute; you can see some pictures on our facebook page.

\(https://www.facebook.com/groups/1078191248877955/\)

This month we have a ton of fun and exciting things coming up and we could really use your help. The 9th grade Coming of Age class is going to New York City on March 17th for YSOP (Youth Service Opportunities Project), an experience where our youth get to see what homelessness and food insecurity looks like first-hand and we still need chaperones. If you're interested in participating in this overnight please email me at recoord@uumontclair.org.

I am also still in the midst of planning and executing a Purim Carnival for March 12th. Purim is a fun Jewish holiday where good triumphs against evil. There are many aspects of this carnival and any bit of support is appreciated.

For Your Calendars

3/2 (Thurs) Family Meetup at the Montclair Art Museum

3/4 (Sat) RE Committee Retreat

3/12 Children's Chapel: Purim

4/15 (Sat) 6th-9th Grade Community Building Event

See you Sunday,

Iris E. DeLaPaz

Religious Education Program Coordinator

On That Note...News from our Music Director

During the last several weeks, we have sung the hymn "Woyaya" in each of our Sunday services. For those of you who missed it, here are the lyrics:

We are going
Heaven knows where we are going
But we know within
And we will get there
Heaven knows how we will get there
But we know we will
It will be hard, we know
And the road will be muddy and rough
But we'll get there
Heaven knows how we will get there
But we know we will

These words have resonated with me, as they seem very appropriate to our time. The hymn is based on a song that was recorded in 1971 by the Ghanaian band Osibisa, and later covered by Art Garfunkel, Sweet Honey in the Rock, and others (you can find some of these versions on YouTube - just search for "Woyaya"). Of course we know that all great art appeals to a large variety of people, but I am still amazed when I think of the unique circumstances, location, and time in which the song was written - a reality quite different from ours, yet clearly an experience we can share.

Ministerial Search Committee

Our yearlong search process is at an intense time. During February and March we're spending one weekend each with our four ministerial pre-candidates. So far, the pre-candidates have been very impressed with the energy and commitment of our congregation and community. The ministers are excited about our tradition of social justice activism, our commitment to lay leadership development, and our desire for meaningful and stimulating worship. The Montclair area is also attractive--ministers are enthusiastic about our "urban suburb" feel, its diversity, and its progressive values.

By the middle of March, we will complete our weekend-long interviews and then come to a decision on the best minister for our congregation now. We then offer the position, negotiate the terms, and work on an announcement to the community, probably around early/mid April. Please mark your calendars for Candidating Week, April 29 - May 7.

This is the prayer we use to welcome our candidates:

A Prayer of New Beginning by Laurie Stuart

In the spirit of community and a sense of purpose in our ministry:

Let us commence the discovery of our strengths, our concerns, our grief and our joy.

Let this journey be one of love, authenticity and reverence.

Let us shape our lives, our work and our days as an expression of that joy, that love and of our commitment to service and to each other.

Thank you for your support and love along the way. It shows!

We are your Ministerial Search Committee: Peter Arian, John Carlton, Nancy Felix, Erin Krupa, Lawrence Ramsey, Chelsea Vaughn Showalter and Connie Thames - search@uumontclair.org

News from the Board

Our pledge drive is kicking into high gear. If you haven't made your pledge yet, it could be just that "I never seem to get around to it." But often, particularly for new members, it may be that you don't know how much to pledge. How much is the right amount for you?

As much as we would like to, we actually can't tell you. We can't tell you what to believe, and we can't tell you how much it should cost you to attend UUCM. Some hard mathematical figures we can give you are the following: It costs approximately $2,000 per adult member per year just to keep the lights on and the building running. Our aspirational goal is that members pay three percent of income.

We have important work to do. We need to be there for each other in our significant phases of life. We need to educate our children and ourselves, and we need to take a stand on the issues of our day. We need to ensure that in the doing we are meeting our obligations to compensate our staff fairly.

Here's how much to give: give an amount that becomes a source of pride for you.

Sue Ranfer

Vice President, Board of Trustees

Frequently Asked Questions

What are UUCM'S office hours?

Our office hours are Monday thru Friday from 8:00 AM to 4:00 PM and Sundays from 8:30 AM to 12:30 PM.

How do I schedule a meeting or reserve a space?

All requests must go through our Administrator Danielle Ramcharan at admin@uumontclair.org or ext. 12. Please let us know the time, the purpose or group and anything needed for set-up.

How do I schedule a meeting with a minister?

Please contact our ministers directly if you wish to make an appointment to meet with them as they maintain their own schedules. Please know that our ministers do not schedule appointments on Mondays.

Rev. Osterman: Justin.osterman@uumontclair.org

Rev. Tomlinson: judyatomlinson@gmail.com

Where can I park?

There are 6 parking areas within easy walking distance. Parking is permitted at metered spots on the street and is free after 7:00 PM and on Sunday. Please note that the driveway at UUCM is reserved for employees during the week and on Sunday for those needing handicapped access ONLY.

How can I get a Member Directory?

We continuously update our member directory for UUCM. If you are a member and need a copy, let us know and we can email you one or send you a hard copy in the mail. Please let us know when any revisions are made to your address, phone number, and/or email address so we can have the most current information in our system.

Can I get some photocopies made?

We will be more than happy to make copies for your UUCM-related committee, group or event. Since the staff is most familiar with our machines, we ask that you submit all requests to the office during regular office hours and we will be happy to assist you.

Who do I talk to about my Annual Pledge?

Inquiries regarding your Pledge go to our Bookkeeper Emilia Sadonis who is in the office on Tuesdays and Fridays from 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM. Call or email accountant@uumontclair.org to contact Emilia directly.

How do I make a monetary donation to UUCM?

Checks may be made out to UUCM. Please use the memo line to indicate to us your intentions (i.e., Annual Pledge, Plate Collection, Seasons of Life Fund, Sharing Our Riches, MESH). You can also make donations via electronic funds transfer (EFT). Contact Emilia Sadonis for info.

Can I make other kinds of donations to UUCM?

We do not accept donations of clothing, books or household items. We suggest donating used clothing to either the Salvation Army or the Red Cross. Your local library might also be happy to accept your old books. If you wish to donate items for our MESH Café Ministry, please email randilynnhawkins@gmail.com.

How do I submit a check request?

All check requests must come from the head of your committee or group and be received a week in advance of need. Submit your receipts to your committee leader and have them contact the Administrator to electronically fill out the request.

How do I get an announcement into the order of service, Gazette or weekly email blast?

For Sunday announcements, all requests need to be sent to our office by Wednesday. We also send out our weekly email blast on Wednesday. All announcements from the previous Sunday are included in the blast. UUCM-related events take precedence over outside events but we do our best to accommodate all requests. Announcements must be kept short. Gazette articles must be no longer than 250 words. Send to our Office Mgr. Jaclyn Puleo (officemgr@uumontclair.org).

How can I provide Sunday flowers for the Chancel?

You can provide the Sunday Chancel flowers to honor a memory or a person. The price is reasonable and your dedication will be acknowledged in the Order of Service. Contact Lori Alexander at yngraph@gmail.com or (973) 338-1226 for more info.

What are child dedications?

Child dedications are our ritual way of welcoming infants and children into the congregation. They are similar to Baptisms, Christenings or Naming Ceremonies in other faith traditions. For members, a small child is dedicated as part of our Sunday morning worship services. We also perform Child Dedications in people's homes.

Among Ourselves

Snow Cancellation Possibilities

It is impossible to predict all of the winter weather conditions that might warrant the closing of UUCM. This is especially true for services on Sunday morning when no one would want us to be closed. In an effort to provide an approach that might enable members and friends to anticipate what to expect, the following guidelines are being offered:

- 1) In the event of a major snow storm on a Saturday night/Sunday morning:
 - The office voicemail (973-744-6276, ext. 17), our website (www.uumontclair.org) and Facebook page will all be updated as soon as possible;
 - If a snowfall of over 5" has occurred on Saturday night/Sunday morning, there will be one service only at 11:00 AM; Coffee Hour will be held after the service.
 - If a snowfall of over 10" has occurred on Saturday night/Sunday morning, there will be no services held on that Sunday.
- 2) Don't take any unnecessary chances. If you feel that there is significant reason to question your safety while traveling on the streets, stay home.
- 3) If an ice storm is in progress, stay home.
- 4) For an evening or Saturday meeting or event, if 5" or more fall, the event will be cancelled. You can also call the office voice-mail at (973) 744-6276, ext. 17, or check the website for info.

Greeters Wanted!

Here's a great way to get to know the friendly faces walking through the door Sunday mornings: be a Greeter! David Hanley, chief overseer of the Narthex, has a sign-up sheet and instructions on performing this essential role needed Sunday mornings.

UUCM Talk and Tour Schedule

Have you ever been curious to learn a bit more about our beautiful Sanctuary and buildings? Our UUCM Tour will be March 5th. We will also be leading UU 101 for any newcomers interested in getting a brief overview of our UU history, beliefs and values March 19th. Meet us by the fireplace in the Narthex after each service!

Our CommUUnity Mart

Come visit us every Sunday at Coffee Hour! Purchase your weekly gift cards from ShopRite and Kings as well as many other items. Do you need a place to display and sell your art? We'd love to welcome you as an "Artist of the Month" at our UU Marketplace table at our Coffee and Connection Hour from 10:00 to 11:00 AM each Sunday. 80% of sales go to the artist and 20% is donated to the U. We're delighted to welcome a new "Artist of the Month" for March, Liz Sobkiw. She will be sharing her original watercolor paintings, inspired by nature and the world around her. We'd love to see you at the table. If you would like more information contact Arlene Dodge at (908)889-5784 or adodge918@hotmail.com.

Bed & Breakfast Program

In our bed and breakfast program, hosts gain new friends from other places and travelers meet hosts who share many of their interests, concerns, and values, enjoy comfortable quarters at affordable prices and have the opportunity to obtain answers to their questions about the area they are visiting. All proceeds benefit the work of UUCM. If you wish to host or need accommodation, contact Carol McGough at carol-peckldtc@yahoo.com or (973) 680-1603.

Seasons of Life Fund

The Seasons of Life Fund is an outlet for self-expression at the milestone moments of life: the birth of a child, the death of a parent, a dear friend's benchmark birthday. Created with a win-win between you and the congregation in mind, The Seasons of Life Fund accepts donations in any amount to be used toward programs and services that fulfill our mission.

Do You Shop on Amazon.com?

What's Happening This Month

100% Committed... NOW MORE THAN EVER

Annual Pledge Drive 2017-18 • Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Montclair

A team of your fellow members has been hard at work to make this year's annual Pledge Drive a success. Following up on last year, when we increased our giving an amazing 13%, many are joining our team to do even better this year. We are doing even more one on one canvassing, the most effective way to build our community's strength while inspiring generous giving. Please respond to our calls, take a look at your annual budget, and if you are able, consider a pledge of 3% of your income. UUCM is doing many great things to shore up our foundation for a new minister and your financial contribution is one of the best ways to both express your commitment and respond to the many spiritual and social challenges we see before us. Thanks to this great community, we're confident we'll have another successful drive. Thank YOU for doing your part to make our Congregation the vital, important place that it is! 100% Committed, Now More Than Ever!

Coffee and Connections Hour

Coffee and Connections Hour is a great time to meet and catch up with friends and members of the congregation as well as make our visitors feel welcome. Please consider hosting a Coffee Hour by bringing food, setting up snacks for the congregation and cleaning up. There is a sign-up sheet at every coffee hour posted in the kitchen on the wall. You can sign up there or at <http://www.uumontclair.org/worship/coffee-hour/>. If you need any help, including during coffee hour, or would like more information, please contact Connie Thames at temzplace@yahoo.com.

Ongoing Groups and Meetings

Below are our groups that meet on a regular basis and the dates when they are meeting this month. Please visit our website at www.uumontclair.org to learn more!

- Women's Group – March 3rd at 7:00 PM
- Senior Lunch Bunch – March 8th & 22nd at Noon
- Solo UU's – March 10th at 7:00 PM
- Men's Group – March 11th at 8:30 AM
- The Crazy QUUilters – March 18th at 11:00 AM
- MESH Café Ministry – Wednesdays at 6:00 PM

Pastoral Care Ministry

The Pastoral Care Committee (PCC) continues to expand its ministry at UUCM. This month we have served fourteen members of the congregation with rides to services, meals, at home visits, calls and cards. It is our hope to include the wider congregation in these efforts. We will be setting up online applications to facilitate volunteer efforts. This month we have the following message from the rides team.

Volunteer Drivers Needed! The Pastoral Care Committee seeks volunteers to drive UU members in need to Sunday services. Click on this link to sign up: <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/20f054aadab22a3fa7-driving>. We're also looking to fill other members' transportation needs, such as driving them to doctor's appointments, etc. If you're interested, please contact David Bronstein at dbbrnst@gmail.com or 201-207-9438.

Co-Chairs - Arlene Marin (973-748-9194 /arlenemarin@hotmail.com) and Melissa Mintz (973-744-0889 /whit.mintz@verizon.net).

Sunday Remembrances

- From Christian Turek: For the loss of my French cousin Murielle Pommar who died after a lifelong illness. And for my cousin Andrei Joliot, diagnosed with a serious illness and for his new bride, Natalia.
- From Isabel Conway who is convalescing from gall bladder surgery on January 27th.
- From Mary Moriarty: A friend who has been diagnosed with an aggressive & advanced form of cancer.
- From Ginny Crooks: Friend and accomplished musician, Chris Griffin, died by his own hand because he feared his medical problems made him a burden to his friends.
- From Jason Brome: My aunt Mavis passed away after a long battle with cancer. Please keep my Uncle Stan and his family in your thoughts and prayers.
- From Sarah Scalet: Gratitude to Teresa DeSousa for organizing a busload of people to attend the historic Women's March on Washington.
- From Lawrence Ramsey: Veronique's uncle Theo passed away in Veronique's hometown of Almelo, The Netherlands. He was beloved by Rowan, Lanka and Lawrence as well.
- It is with great sadness that we share with you news of the death of longtime UUCM member Joan Burress on February 1st. A memorial service for Joan will be held on Sunday, February 26 at 2:30pm in our Sanctuary.
- From Lauren Carlton: I ask the congregation to offer a prayer or thought to help my in-laws find peace in their struggles with trauma and illness.

We have introduced a new way of sharing remembrances during Sunday services. Instead of saying your remembrance up on the Chancel, you will find a small table with candles and remembrances book in the Sanctuary on Sundays. Please write any joy or sorrow you have in the book, light a candle, and indicate whether you want your remembrance shared or kept private. Written remembrances will capture important news and equip your community to respond effectively to your joys and sorrows.

As I See It

A Monthly Take on Race in America from Members of the Undoing Racism Committee

Often when we think of women warriors, the image of women with weapons and suits of armor come to mind. But we members of the Undoing Racism Committee wish to memorialize another kind of woman warrior in the persons of Joan Burress and Nancy Shakir, two longtime UUCM members who died this past February.

Joan Burress was a very unassuming person who often displayed a self-deprecating sense of humor that reminded us to not take ourselves too seriously. She served on several projects within URC and was a staunch believer in the work of the People's Institute for Survival and Beyond (PISAB). She helped to conduct anti-racism workshops for young people as well. Joan was also one of the first to volunteer as a tutor when retired principal Frank Rennie started our After School Tutorial Program and remained a tutor until her illness prevented her from participating.

When Nancy Shakir relocated to North Carolina in 2008, she remained an active UU. She was also active in the Moral Monday Movement, ran for Congress and worked tirelessly for voting rights in an increasingly hostile environment. Here at UUCM, we remember Nancy for her work as a Board member, Sunday Service leader and founding member of the Undoing Racism Committee. Her expertise as a teacher, media person and poet extended to the larger community where she organized lecture series and train-the-trainer sessions for anti-racism work.

Our love and gratitude extend to these two memorable warriors for peace and justice.

In other URC news, the URC is hosting a Jazz Brunch on Sunday, March 12th, at 12:30 PM in honor of Women's History Month with music by Denise Hamilton and Melvin Davis. There will also be a presentation of "Race, Racism and Black Women's Health" by Dr. Denise Rodgers who will discuss the potential adverse impacts of racism, what is race as it pertains to health and disparities in health outcomes. Please visit: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/jazz-brunch-honoring-womens-history-month-music-and-more-tickets-32028301512> to RSVP or email uucmurc@gmail.com for more info.

Blue Jean Sunday

Blue Jean Sunday is coming on April 9th! It is our day to wear blue jeans to service and then stay to give an hour and a half of our precious time helping to make UUCM and its grounds really sparkle. This is an annual event and it allows all of us of every age and capability to work together on projects that include raking leaves, weeding, pruning, small paint jobs, cleaning pews and windows AND feeding all our BUUsy bees a delicious, nutritious lunch.

Here is how it works: Sign up at Coffee Hour during Sundays in March. You can choose what project to work on, what tools you should bring, and which session you are volunteering for (Session 1 is from 10:30 AM to 12 Noon, and Session 2 is from 12:30 to 2:00 PM). Lunch is served for all workers from Noon to 12:30 PM. Just sign up and come to Fletcher Hall on BJS (with the tools that you have brought for your project), and you will be given instructions on how to proceed. Persons of all ages are encouraged to participate, but young children must be accompanied by an adult who will work with the child. All consumable materials required will be furnished, but each person should bring their own tools if tools are required for the project of choice.

Blue Jean Sunday is sponsored by the Religious Education Program and the work projects are organized by the Buildings and Grounds Committee. This is a really fun event, so let us know that you're coming so that we can plan adequately. Email recoord@uumontclair.org for more information.

UUA Presidential Candidates Forum

Join us on April 1 for Better Together: Central
East Region Leadership

Covenant Groups

Covenant Groups are small group ministries that provide an opportunity for us to get to know each other through shared interests, topic discussions and time together where we share our thoughts, feelings and ideas. You can find contact information and detailed descriptions of the groups on our website and in brochures located in the welcome area of the main building.

Groups include (leaders are in parenthesis):

- Soul Matters (Rev. Judy Tomlinson)
- Short Fiction Reading Group (Irene Sanderson)
- Meditation (Maggie Landowski)
- What is God? (Stephen Bryant)
- Poetry (Ginny Crooks)
- Life Transitions and Personal Growth (Charles Loflin)
- Writing As A Spiritual Practice (Laura Wilson)
- ART and SOUL (Veronique Ramsey)
- Food Diplomacy (Nelia Sellers)

We are happy to add a new Covenant

Group! Our Positive Place covenant group welcomes family members of people with a mental illness. Our mission is empowerment, friendship and support. In a confidential setting, we strive to increase hope and optimism and reduce isolation by sharing experiences with others who are traveling a similar path. For more information, contact Carol McGough, 973-680-1603 or carolpeckldtc@yahoo.com.
